

A Message from Deb

I wanted to take this chance to share with our members and friends my reflections of this past year and the excitement I have for the one that lies before us. You may know that my personal struggles have been huge, losing my husband Bob in November. He was my love and my life, and I am so grateful for his courage and the Chamber's tender understanding as I balanced my duties while taking care of him.

We welcomed Kim Kopec to the staff last January, and of course Donna Angelo continues to help keep the Chamber engine running. They are both consummate "Chamber Ladies." In 2015 Armand Ferrara handed his gavel over to Jim Protin after 17 years, and Jim has embraced his presidential duties with passion and energy. He helped to orchestrate a new dynamic Committee operating under the Chamber, the Young Professionals of the Mon Valley, and has worked to strengthen our partnerships with all who are focused on success here in our Mid Mon Valley.

Our Membership and Marketing Committee has been awesome under the leadership of Chair Diann Donaldson. Our retention and recruitment rate has already been elevated because of their hard work. AND we continue to develop our social media presence. BE A MEMBER! BAM! is our mantra for 2016. I hope you will join us in spreading the good word about our benefits, events and initiatives.

And sadly, in 2015 we said goodbye to our friends at the Valley Independent and to the daily publication that was so important to our local businesses and residents. The VI was a great partner in the operation of the MVRCC and we will miss them. Moving forward, we hope you can make our February 9 luncheon (insert in this newsletter) where we are bringing together the media that is striving to service our region in their absence. Hope to see you there!

Deb Keefer, Your Director

“HOODIE HOO” EXPECTED TO BRING MASSES TOGETHER TO SHOUT WINTER AWAY

The 3rd Annual Hoodie Hoo Day hosted by the Mon Valley Regional Chamber of Commerce will take place on Saturday, February 20, 2016 in downtown Charleroi. Activities begin at 11:00 AM, and the group Hoodie Hoo shout will occur precisely at noon, to chase any remnants of winter completely away. It is simply a shout of “Hoodie Hoo” three times (the louder the better)! The shout will occur regardless of severity of weather, and if necessary, some activities will be moved indoors.

Northern Hemisphere Hoodie Hoo Day is an official holiday trademarked by wellcat.com, and Charleroi is believed to have the largest crowd on record performing the shout in 2014. It always occurs on February 20. “We are excited,” said Deb Keefer, Chamber Director. “Because February 20 falls on a Saturday this year, we expect our attendance will explode because of area school students who want to participate.”

Please see the Hoodie Hoo insert included in this newsletter. If anyone would like to be a sponsor, be involved in the planning, or volunteer please contact the chamber office at 724-483-3507.
