Model Cleaners

Only professional cleaning will completely eliminate COVID-19 pathogens. At Model Cleaners, we use high-temperature steam (upwards of 300 degrees) as a standard part of our finishing process – effectively sterilizing without damaging your fabrics. So if you and your family are: still wearing clothing and outer-wear, occasionally going out to pick up supplies, sleeping on sheets and under blankets every night, let Model Cleaners help you reduce the risk of virus transmission by sterilizing your garments and household items.

Model Cleaners offers a variety of services to keep the safety of our customers and employees a priority. Please visit our Model Cleaners contact-free drive-thru location located at Willowbrook plaza that is open at full hours 9am-7pm Mon-F and Saturday's 9am-3pm or signup with our Convenient Contact- Free Home Pickup and Delivery service at modelcleaners.com that now offers Wash Dry Fold Laundry services! For constant savings on your cleaning needs please visit us at modelcleaners.com and go to the coupon tab for our coupons that are available for you.

As a family-owned and operated business since 1986, thank you for supporting us during this challenging time. We are proud to continue offering services aimed at keeping our community and customers safe.

Presbyterian SeniorCare Network

We are currently accepting new resident move-ins for Southminster Place (personal care) and the new Woodside Place of Washington (dementia care). Union Bridge Capital

Like many of our fellow small businesses, the Mon Valley office of Union Bridge Capital has remained closed since the beginning of the stay-at-home order. Nevertheless, we have strived to continue our daily operations without any reduction in capacity or capabilities. We are committed to working with our current and prospective clients through phone or numerous virtual mediums including conference lines, screen sharing, and video conferencing. This includes conducting reviews, financial planning, and regularly sharing investment commentary and analysis through our website and social media.

Through this difficult time we strive to be a resource to any business or individual with concerns including investment management, tax resources, insurance concerns, employment status, and legal/estate structuring. Union Bridge Capital will remain available to anyone with concerns around how the current pandemic will impact their financial goals and circumstances commitment free. Stay healthy!

CSC Insurance

I hope the entire Mon Valley Chamber team is doing well. We realized that small businesses are being bombarded with emails with updated information. People are receiving 5 times the emails they did prior to COVID-19. To consolidate all of the important updates, we've created a COVID resource website <http://covid.cscinsurance.com>. We are posting updated content daily, sometimes twice a day. Stay safe and healthy!
